

Matt Pavlosky
Marketing/Program Manager

Matt Pavlosky joined the Port of Pittsburgh Commission as the Marketing/Project Manager on January 9th. In his role, Matt will be responsible to promote the existing programs and increase the visibility of the Commission's offerings in the Greater Pittsburgh region. This will include the Revolving Loan Fund, financing packages for capital projects, access to various grant programs, and advocacy for increased lock and dam funding.

Previously, Matt was employed by the Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission, as their community liaison for Public Involvement and Outreach. During his career, he has managed community efforts for various industrial, civic and membership-based organizations. His career began as the Membership Manager for Greater Johnstown / Cambria County Chamber of Commerce in Johnstown, PA. He made the move to Pittsburgh in 2002 to begin his first stint with the SPC, then as an economic development specialist.

Matt has served as the Network Manager for Manufacturing at the Pittsburgh Technology Council, and later as the Government Affairs liaison to the US Department of Energy for IBACOS Inc. (Pittsburgh, PA), as the manager of their Best Practices Research Alliance, a consortium of energy-efficient homebuilders in the United States.

He has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown, and resides in Banksville, in the City of Pittsburgh.
